Thanks for your interest in doing a Guest Post on Motherhoot! I look forward to working together!

Here's information about the guest posts:

They have covered a vast array of topics. So feel free to write about anything!

You are welcome to promote yourself, your books, your music, your charity projects, your contests, etc.

Posts run on Fridays and are first come, first post. If you need a particular date, please let me know and I'll put you on the calendar. For example, past writers have posted near a publication date.

I love pictures! Feel free to include head shots, book covers, logos, videos. These should be sent to me as jpegs or as a code I can embed (for videos). Please don't use stock photos without sending along the appropriate acknowledgements.

You can send your post as either a document attachment or in an email. If you use an unusual word processing program, just ask me how to send it.

I will promote the post several times over the course of the day via Twitter and Facebook. Feel free to promote along with me!

Your post is yours, even after I publish it. While I do ask that your guest post be original, feel free to publish it elsewhere after it appears on Motherhoot.

If you have any questions, please email me at susieklene@motherhoot.com.

Thanks again for your interest in Guest Posting on Motherhoot!
